Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 02 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry with clear spells overnight. Feeling cold, with patchy frost.

This Evening and Tonight:
Clear skies this evening and overnight, with light winds. Another dry night, though feeling cold. Patchy cloud encroaching from the east towards dawn. Overnight frosts developing for some, especially in rural areas, with possible fog. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Saturday:
Any frost and fog will clear into the morning, leaving another fine, mild, sunny day. Chilly into the night, with frost and fog returning, but remaining dry. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Conditions turning unsettled overnight on Sunday, with rain followed by showers, some wintry in nature. Winds strengthening, becoming cold. More settled Tuesday in the east, though further showers remain likely.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.